'A Night on the Tiles' a comedy by Frank Vickery

Characters

Doris: Mother (lge. role), age late 40's to early 50's. Kind, but shows anger too. Likes to fluster, run the house - and let everyone know she does.

Reg: Father, age late 40's to early 50's. Happy to plod along with life and let Doris run things.

Grandad: age 70's plus. A good drunk acting role. Also gets confused. Happy go lucky.

Kenneth: Older brother (lge. role), age 25. Good sense of humour, bit of a joker. Happy go lucky attitude but able to show the serious and angry side of himself.

Gareth: Younger brother, and husband of Shirley (lge. role), age early 20's. More serious. Lacks a bit of confidence. Feels inferior to his brother.

Shirley: Wife of Gareth, age early 20's. Pregnant, and unsure of the father. Needs to be able to separate her desire for Kenneth and loyalty to Gareth.

Mrs Morris: Neighbour (small cameo role), age mid 50's to 60's. A great gossip, little naïve. Just what you want in a neighbour.
